BNI Annual Power Breakfast

You are cordially invited to attend

"The photos are a national treasure. Kleina's photos are unusual in that they are all shot in color. While the more typical black-and-white photos of King and his movement have a moving documentary feel, these photographs make you feel as if you are there in the moment."

- Mary McCarty, Staff Writer, Dayton Daily News

Senator Ben Cardin

Benjamin L. Cardin has been a national leader on health care, retirement security, the environment and fiscal issues since coming to Congress in 1987. In 2006, he was elected to the U.S. Senate where he currently serves on the Environment and Public Works (EPW), Finance, Foreign Relations, Budget and Small Business & Entrepreneurship committees. In the 112th Congress, he chairs the Water and Wildlife Subcommittee of EPW and he chairs the International Development and Foreign Assistance, Economic Affairs and International Environmental Protection Subcommittee of the Foreign Relations Committee.

Congressman John Lewis

Often called "one of the most courageous persons the Civil Rights Movement ever produced," John Lewis has dedicated his life to protecting human rights, securing civil liberties, and building what he calls "The Beloved Community" in America. His dedication to the highest ethical standards and moral principles has won him the admiration of many of his colleagues on both sides of the aisle in the United States Congress.
